Note: Contestants may only sign up for one slide division and one digital division (Divisions are defined below.) A best in show award will be given in both the side and digital contest. Anyone entered in the contest can win best in show. Awards will be given to photographs placing in the top three for each photo category. Prizes will vary depending on number of participants for the event.

Definition of Divisions:

Amateur Slide- Any photographer who does not make a principal income from photography & does not fall under the provisions stated in the Masters division.

Master Slide-Any photographer who makes his/her own principal income from photography. In addition, any photographers who by their own judgment feels that there level of expertise give them an unfair advantage over the Amateur division.

Point & Shoot Digital- If you use a compact hand held camera that would not be used by a professional photographer.

Intermediate Digital- If you use a SLR type or other type of digital camera that is typically used by professional photographers, but you are not confident with your abilities to use your camera (example: I don't know how to take pictures except in automatic mode, or I just bought my camera a month ago & I'm not familiar with it yet)

Master Digital- If you use a SLR type or other type of digital camera that is typically used by professional photographers. Any photographer who makes his/her own principal income from photography. In addition, any photographers who by their own judgment feels that there level of expertise give them an unfair advantage over the Amateur division.
